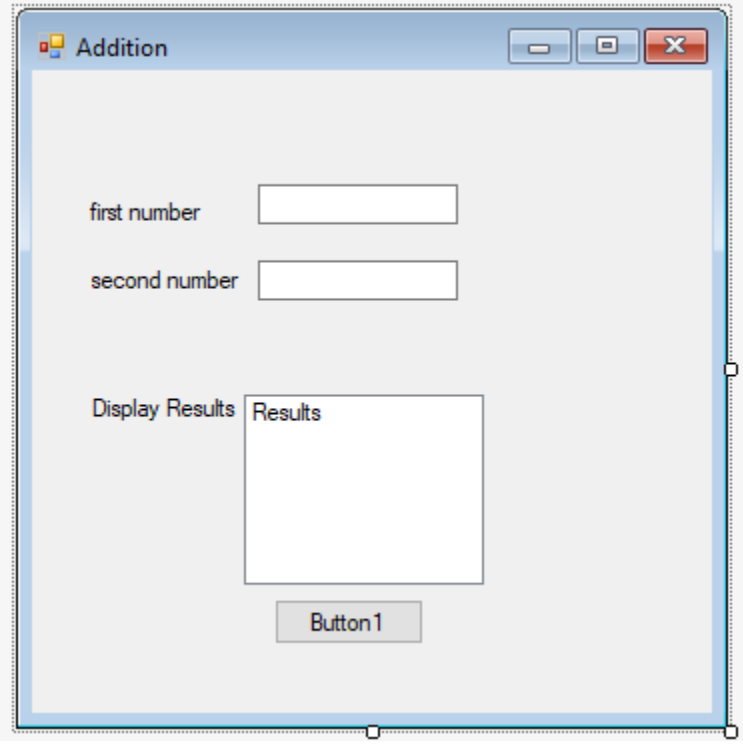
Programming 512 Practical 1

Lecturer : Mr N Mathenjwa

Question 1

- Open visual studio and create an application named Practical1.
- It will automatically create form1, change the name and text of form1 to Addition in the properties window.
- Create the following form



Question

- Create a new form in the same project “Practical1” name it Area
- Implement the code by double clicking on the form
- Declare two variables of a type double named width and length
- Assign 30.5 to length and 40.6 to width
- Use a message box to output the value of an area

Question 3

- Implement the form created in question 1
- A user will insert 2 numbers

- The program must add those two numbers and output the results in the listbox when the Button pressed